Dear Parents,

World Book Day 2023 - Which Book Do You Love To Read?

We will be celebrating World Book Day on Thursday 2nd March by asking children to bring in their favourite book to share with the class.

In addition, we are holding a competition for children to draw their favourite book cover. We will pick one winner per class, which will be announced in assembly on Monday 6th March. Remember, it should be your child's own work.

World Book Day is a charity passionate about helping us to feel inspired by books and reading. Every year they work with National Book Tokens, publishers and book sellers to give children a special FREE £1 World Book Day book or £1 towards the cost of a book or audiobook worth £2.99 or more.

A Book Token has been sent home with your child along with a competition entry sheet and you can use it at participating bookshops and supermarkets for the special free book or purchases of £2.99 or more between 16th February and 26th March 2023.

We are looking forward to seeing the book that your child picks as their favourite on Thursday. We will not be dressing up - school uniform as usual please!

Yours faithfully,

D. Knights
