Dear Parents and Carers

It is with enormous pleasure that I am able to share with you the outcome of our recent Ofsted inspection, which has found that Kingsway Infants remains a GOOD school. I am delighted that Ofsted recognise the amazing work we do here, and witnessed that our pupils become 'independent, confident learners' in a 'happy and welcoming school'.

I have attached a copy of the official report for your information and I hope that you will join us in celebrating our achievement. The report will also be available on our website and on Ofsted's official website later this week.

We could not have achieved this without your support and I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you, your fantastic children and our dedicated staff for their hard work and commitment, which has helped to make Kingsway Infant School such an amazing place to learn, work and succeed.

I would like to highlight some of the key messages from the report

- 'Pupils benefit from positive relationships with caring staff.'
- 'Pupils have very positive attitudes to learning and work with one another very well.'
- 'Leaders and teachers have high expectations of what pupils can achieve.'
- 'Pupils make a positive contribution to the school.'
- 'Pupils treat each other with kindness and respect.'

The report itself is detailed and is only a fraction of the many positive comments the inspector made about our school in person. What is very satisfying is the next steps identified are actions we as a school (staff and governors) had already identified and feature on our school improvement plan. This is an excellent report, particularly at a time when the benchmark for Good is at the highest level it has ever been. Please take the time to read the report, we all feel extremely proud of our school community.

Thank you for your continued support, I hope you will share in our celebrations and should you have any questions about the report, please do not hesitate in contacting me.

Kind Regards

Deborah Knights
